FORMAT

HOW IT WORKS

- 01 First three weeks: drama.
Creative drama, improvisation, individual and ensemble work with Alara Lokum. English is used on stage, not in a textbook.
- 02 Last week: guest workshop.
Creative writing, design and jazz dance rotate. Each workshop closes with a small creative assignment for the next meeting.
- 03 The work becomes the show.
The children's texts, designs and movement pieces are reworked by the artists and become the material of the year-end show.
- 04 Rehearsal and performance.
Rehearsals begin at the end of month four. The season closes in month eight with a live, all-English year-end show.

A NOTE FOR PARENTS

No placement test. A parent's statement is enough; comfortable everyday English (B1 and above) is all it takes.

No textbooks, exams or grades. Not perfect English, but the freedom to make mistakes in it.
